HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

Division 1 of Providence, R. I., now has a membership of 139. Buffalo Hibernians have organized an Irish athletic association to cultivate an interest in square mainly sport.

Division 4 will meet in regular session on Monday night and President John H. Hennessy desires a full attendance.

Division 8, Ladies' Auxiliary of Minneapolis, gave a card party recently and had to turn patrons away so great was the crowd.

At Dunkirk, N. Y., the Hibernians annually give a gold medal to the pupil at St. Mary's school that shows the most proficiency in Latin. Pittsburgh Hibernians held their annual outing at Bloomfield Park last Thursday, and the gathering was the largest in the history of the order in that city.

Next Friday night will be the regular meeting night for Division 2, and President Ford desires all members to be present and hear reports on the picnic.

Mrs. Margaret Foley made her appearance at the Ladies' Auxiliary Wednesday evening after a prolonged absence and was given a most cordial greeting.

President Patrick T. Sullivan wants a first class attendance at the meeting of Division 3 Thursday night, when plans for the anniversary are to be discussed.

Division 9 of Minneapolis has a splendid baseball club, and that organization will give a dance and ice cream supper on Tuesday and Wednesday, July 20 and 21.

Thomas P. Burke, of Newry, and a prominent member of the Board of Erin branch of the order in Ireland, is in the United States and promises to visit old Hibernian friends in Providence, R. I.

Orders prosper only in proportion as their members labor toward that end. Let every Louisville Hibernian strive to bring in one additional member before January 1, 1910. That is the way to build up the order.

The Erie County Board, in New York State, has offered a gold medal each year to the pupil who shows greatest excellence in the study of Irish history. This year it was won by a Buffalo pupil of St. Columba's school.

Binghamton Hibernians celebrated last Sunday as memorial day and 300 members of the order and their families attended the exercises in the Catholic cemetery. The Rev. Dr. Glynn, County Chaplain, conducted the services.

A movement is on foot among the Hibernians to erect a chapel to cost $100,000 on the Catholic University grounds at Washington. The order is now twice as strong as when it presented $50,000 to the university to found a Celtic chair.

None contributed more to the success of the Hibernian picnic than D. J. Coleman and Thomas Keenan, Jr. They walked and talked Hibernian picnic and dreamed about it for more than a month. Both deserve well of the order in the city, State and nation. Send them to Portland in 1910 and they will bring the national convention to Louisville in 1912.

LADIES' AUXILIARY

Will Assist Division 3 in Celebrating Its Jubilee.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the A. O. H. held a well attended meeting Wednesday night with Miss Rose Sweeney presiding. One application was received and an interesting chapter of Irish history was read. Misses Mary Corcoran, Hattie Higgins and Nellie Nolan were appointed a committee to arrange for the auxiliary to assist Division 3 in its forthcoming anniversary celebration.

At the conclusion of the business session the members enjoyed vocal and instrumental music for an hour or more with Miss Mary Butler presiding at the piano. The members were pleased to hear that Miss Bridget Hanrahan, who has been at St. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital for several weeks, is much improved. The auxiliary is doing good work and has been paying out considerable money for sick benefits and other works of a charitable nature.

HONOR PATRON.

St. Vincent de Paul's Day to Be Duly Celebrated.

On the church calendar July 19 is set apart as St. Vincent de Paul's day, but as that is Monday the feast will be celebrated in St. Vincent's de Paul's church on Sunday, July 18, one week from tomorrow. The parish conference of the St. Vincent de Paul Society will go to holy communion in a body at the 6:30 o'clock mass; at 10 o'clock there will be solemn high mass and solemn vespers at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

The pastor, the Rev. Father A. J. Thome, will celebrate the solemn high mass and will be assisted by the Rev. Father Rueff as deacon and one of the Franciscans as sub-deacon. Father Thome will also preach a sermon on the life of St. Vincent de Paul.

This saint is known as one of the foremost benefactors of mankind and one of the best exemplars of the "First Commandment of the Law." Born on a small farm, of poor but pious parents, in a remote part of France, this good man was considered a saint from his early youth and was conspicuous for his charity. St. Vincent de Paul's charity had its foundation in the love of God, and for that reason was all embracing, continuous and self-sacrificing.

FATHER KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC
An Old Merchant.

Accord, N. Y., July 6, 1907.
I am an old merchant and have been in business for 30 years. About 10 years ago I was afflicted with nervous prostration. I consulted doctors, specialists but found no relief until I was advised by a friend to try Father Koening's Nerve Tonic. By the use of which I have been cured. I feel sure the Nerve Tonic will help many who are suffering from nervous troubles.

W. C. HAINES.

Could Not Remember My Own Name.
Lowell, Mass., Sept. 3rd, 1907.
I was afflicted for 6 months with nervous prostration to such an extent that I did not remember my own name and did not even recognize my own children. I cannot explain my case easily as it was so complicated, that I do not like to think of it. After I had taken the first bottle of Father Koening's Nerve Tonic began to feel stronger and after I had taken 5 bottles I am entirely cured.

FREE A Valuable Book on Nervous Disorders. Send a sample bottle to any address. Poor patients also get the medicine free. Prepared by Koening, Pharmacian of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1876, and now by the KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill.
100 Lake Street.
Sold by Druggists at $1 per Bottle, 6 for $5. Large Size, $1.75; 6 Bottles for $9.

President James B. Kelly presided. Several applications were received and two new members were elected. The entire evening was devoted to the transaction of routine business.

LETTER CARRIERS' OUTING.
The Louisville Letter Carriers will hold their annual outing at Fountaine Ferry Park on Saturday, July 17, and the general public is invited. Not only will the usual attractions be in full force, but special features have been added by the letter carriers. Charles Huber, Chairman of the General Committee on Arrangements, is much elated over the prospects for a big crowd. A big wheel has been provided with Charles S. Raily, a regular wheel-horse, as Chairman, and Joseph Eschermann as assistant. Many valuable prizes are to be distributed. All attending the vaudeville theater that afternoon or evening will be entitled to a chance on three handsome articles.

CHANGE OF NAME.
Hubbuck Bros. & Wellendorf is the new name of an old Louisville firm. The change of name was brought about on July 1, when the company filed articles of incorporation. The name added to the old firm is that of C. A. Wellendorf, who was a member of the old firm of Hubbuck Bros. for several years. Mr. Wellendorf has contributed much to the success of the firm in the past, and his efficient services have been duly recognized.

CHURCH FOR SHEPHERDSVILLE.
Shepherdsville Catholics are rejoicing because they soon hope to have a church of their own. The site has been donated by a resident of the town, and it is believed that work on the proposed structure will soon begin.

COVINGTON MAN RECOVERS.
Richard O'Rourke, a well known citizen of Covington, is rapidly recovering from a severe spell of illness and will soon be able to be out seeing his friends.

IRELAND.

Record of the Most Important of the Recent Events Culled From Exchanges.

Cattle drivers cleared the lands of Tiskin, County Clare, of twenty head of cattle.

Rev. Father Patrick O'Flaherty, of Castlebar, has been appointed pastor of Keelogue, County Mayo.

Henry Miller, a young business man of Belfast, was drowned while bathing near Twin Islands.

Thirty-six men were required to haul ashore a huge fish at Passage East, County Waterford. Its species is unknown.

Widespread regret is felt in the County Carlow at the death of the Rev. Father Beuchamp, who died at his residence in Borris.

John J. Magee, of the Canadian Privy Council, has contributed $2,000 toward establishing a bacon factory in the County Wexford.

Sir Thomas Esmonde, M. P., has reconsidered his resignation and will remain as Chairman of the Gorey Board of Guardians, County Wexford.

James Wylett, thirty-six years old, fell down stairs in his home at Nass, County Kildare, and died of his injuries. He leaves a widow and several young children.

The body of John Brown, an Armagh farmer, was found at his home by several neighbors who had missed him. He died as he knelt in prayer beside his bed.

Only one case was presented to the grand jury of County Dublin at the June session. The Recorder congratulated the people on the community's freedom from crime.

Rev. Brother Michael Molloy, of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer, is dead at the age of eighty-four years. He was long connected with the monastery in County Louth.

A new school is to be erected on the site of the old jail at Nenagh, County Tipperary. The building will cost $25,000. The cornerstone was blessed by the Right Rev. Bishop Fogarty.

At Stewartstown, County Tyrone, Edwin W. Holt and his sister-in-law were found dead and the house affire. It is believed they were murdered and the house set afire to conceal the double killing.

Fourteen head of cattle which had been seized by the Sheriff for arrears of rent, due More O'Farrell, County Longford, were driven away during the night and no trace of them has been since discovered.

Matthew McCabe, the seven-year-old son of a Donegal farmer, fell into a pond in a rock quarry near Letterkenny and was drowned. The body was recovered soon after, but all efforts to resuscitate the lad failed.

Mother Mary Magdalen Golden, Superior of the Presentation Convent, Galway, died recently and her death cast a gloom over the entire city. Only a short time ago she celebrated her golden jubilee. She had been seven times elected Mother Superior.

Desmond House, the new residential college of Irish at Ring, County Waterford, has been completed and turned over to the Trustees. The late P. F. Collier, of New York, shortly before his death presented the college with 100 selected volumes of literature.

Michael Ludden, a respected citizen of County Mayo, is dead at Castlebar. He was the father of the Rev. Father John Ludden, Pittsburg; brother of Father James Ludden, of Albany, N. Y., and of Father Anthony Ludden, of Little Falls, N. Y., and a cousin of Bishop Ludden, of Syracuse.

HOME COMING

Enthusies Merchant Who Wants to Visit Ireland.

John M. Casey, one of the leading business men of Shelbyville, Ky., is enthused over the prospect of a bunch of Kentuckians taking in the Irish home coming trip in 1910. He writes as follows:

"I was very much pleased with your recent editorial in regard to the Irish home coming, and I think it right and proper that a Kentucky delegation should be represented. Put me down as one of the gossamers that will go along. I would suggest that the Kentucky Irish American have full charge of the affair, and that you publish the names of those who will go in your paper from time to time, so we can all become well acquainted before we start. I hope we will have several hundred from Louisville and through the State, so get your plans together at once."

NEW LIFE

Shown by the Colonels During the Past Week.

The splendid showing made by the Louisville baseball team since its return has once more awakened the enthusiasm of the fans here and it is freely predicted that from now on the Colonels will be a prominent factor in the pennant race. One pleasing feature in connection with the Indianapolis and Toledo series was the encouragement given by the audience. This is as it should be and not like the disposition shown here recently, that of hooting and knocking a player when he chanced to make an error. Manager Peltz has also shown good judgment in playing Puttmann in the field, as his hitting has been a valuable acquisition to the team.

Bill Clymer's Columbus team will be here this afternoon, and tomorrow and as the Senators are going at a good clip now a good game can be expected.

WANTS TO BE MAYOR.

Patrick B. Lillis has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Mayor of Frankfort. With him for Chief Executive the Capitol city would be able and well governed.
